

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

THE BOSTON LIBRARY SOCIETY

Was incorporated by an Act of the General Court, in 1794, with power to make all by-laws and regulations for increasing, maintaining, and using the said Library, and determining penalties either of disfranchisement, or fines not exceeding ten dollars for each offence.

By an Act, 1804, they are empowered at their annual meeting in March, to vote, grant, or order the raising of such sum or sums of money, as are necessary for the preservation, maintenance, management, and augmentation of said Library ; and to assess the same on the several shares, with the penalty of disfranchisement of any proprietor for non-payment of the assessment within such period, as shall, at said meeting, be appointed : provided, thirty days' notice be given in two newspapers.

By an Act, 1821, the Society is authorised to hold its annual and other meetings at such time, as the Society may fix by any vote or by-law.

BY-LAWS.

AS ALTERED AND CORRECTED TO JUNE 1824.

ARTICLE 1. The annual meeting of the Society shall be holden on the second Friday of June in each year, at three o'clock in the afternoon, at the Library Room.

ARTICLE 2. At the annual meeting there shall be chosen by ballot Nine Trustees, a Treasurer, and a Secretary, who shall serve for one year, and until others are chosen ; and the Treasurer and Secretary shall be Trustees ex officio, in addition to the nine. There shall be also chosen a Committee to Audit the treasurer's accounts.

ARTICLE 3. The Trustees shall have stated monthly meetings, to deliberate on all matters interesting to the Library. It shall be their duty to appoint a Librarian, who shall continue in office during the pleasure of the Trustees. The Trustees shall also assign the duties to the Librarian, fix his salary, and prescribe the times the Library shall be kept open. And the Trustees are authorized to call special meetings of the proprietors at their pleasure ; and it shall be their duty to call special meetings at the request of Ten Proprietors. Reasonable notice of such meetings shall be given by advertizing the same in the newspapers. The Trustees shall also direct the purchase and repairs of books ; superintend and direct all the expenditures of the Society ; and at a suitable time before each annual meeting they shall appoint a Committee to examine and report on the state of the Library.

ARTICLE 4. The Treasurer shall collect and be accountable for all assessments, and all money that shall be due the Society from the sales of shares or otherwise, collect all fines, and keep just and fair accounts of his doings.

ARTICLE 5. The Librarian shall be accountable for all the Books in the Library at the time he shall take charge of the same—and for all that shall be added while he remains in office. He shall enter the names, size, and number of volumes of all works or books that shall be added to the Library on their reception, in a book to be kept for that purpose, and afterwards cover, label, and number the same on the cover and in the title-page, assign its place on the shelf, and enter it in the Catalogues kept for the information of the Proprietors, and under its proper title, which shall correspond with the title written on the back of the book. The Librarian shall cover every book, whose cover shall have become soiled or torn—and in no case suffer a book to go from the Library till it is thus covered, labelled, marked, entered in the catalogue, and its place assigned. The Librarian shall report to the Trustees at their monthly meetings all books that shall have been added to the Library since his last report. He shall deliver books to the applicants in rotation ; but he shall in no case permit a Proprietor to take any book from the Library, after the annual meeting, until he has paid all fines and assessments that shall be then due from him.

ARTICLE 6. The Secretary shall attend all the meetings of the Proprietors, and keep a just and fair record of their votes and proceedings. He shall also attend the meetings of the Trustees, and keep a record of their proceedings.

ARTICLE 7. The Library is maintained by the sales of New Shares, Fines, and the Annual Assessments, which are fixed at Two Dollars per share. Shares shall hereafter be sold for Twenty-five Dollars each.

ARTICLE 8. The right of each proprietor, whose share was not made transferable previous to July 1807, will cease with his or her life. All others are alienable as personal estate ; but no transfer or alienation can be made till all arrearages are paid on the share proposed to be transferred. And, on the transfer of a share, One Dollar shall be paid to the Librarian, to the use of the Society.

ARTICLE 9. Each subscriber's name shall be registered in such book, as the Trustees shall direct. And a book shall be kept for recording all donations to the Library—and the donor's name shall be written in every volume presented to the Society.

ARTICLE 10. A share will entitle the owner, at one time, to the use of three volumes. But no book shall be permitted to be taken or used, but by the owner of a share or his family.

ARTICLE 11. Books may be kept out of the Library five weeks, and no longer. And every one shall be subjected to a fine of Seventeen Cents a week for every volume retained beyond the said time. If any book shall be lost, the proprietor in whose name it was taken, shall be held to replace the book, or the set to which it belongs, or pay the value thereof to the Librarian, if the same cannot be replaced.

ARTICLE 12. All Books shall be returned into the Library, for examination, on the Saturday next preceding the Annual Meeting. And every Proprietor having books out, and neglecting to return them, as herein required, shall forfeit and pay for each such neglect the sum of One Dollar : And the fine shall be the same whether such proprietor has neglected to return one or more books.

ARTICLE 13. Every book shall be returned in good order, regard being had to the necessary wear of the book with good usage. And if any book shall be injured, the owner of the share shall take it, and replace it by a new volume, or set, if it belonged to a set, or pay the current price of the volume, or set, to the Librarian :—and thereupon the remainder of the set, if the volume belonged to a set, shall be delivered to the share-holder.

ARTICLE 14. No person shall be allowed to go within the railing, or to take down a book, without the special leave of the Librarian.

ARTICLE 15. Whenever the fines and assessments, due from any proprietor, shall amount to the price of a share, and remain unpaid, such proprietor shall be deemed and taken to be wholly disfranchised, and no longer a member of the Society.

ARTICLE 16. When a written request shall be left with the Librarian, by any Proprietor, for a particular book, then out, it shall be the duty of the Librarian to retain the same for such Proprietor during one Library day after the same shall first be returned.

It is earnestly requested, that proprietors would always send a written order, in which the book, they desire, should be named, corresponding with its number and also with the first words which form the title in the printed Catalogue. And the Librarian is not authorized to deliver any book, to any person but a registered proprietor, without such a written order.

Every proprietor of the Library will do well to reflect, that he is answerable for all the damage which any book receives, while it is in circulation on his account. While the institution continues, for mutual accommodation, every one has a certain property and an interest in having the books, which constitute that property, kept in as good preservation as possible. The frequent marks, either of the pen or the pencil, which disfigure, and exceedingly injure the pages, are not probably made by persons of literature and taste, but by the thoughtless. It must rest with each proprietor to prevent such mutilations, in future, and thereby prevent such complaints as will subject his share to the application of the remedy provided in the case.

It is likewise to be observed, that as the annual assessment is too small to warrant the renewal of injured copies, it behoves those who regard the credit, the extension, and the usefulness of the institution, to be as careful in preserving the books, as they would those of their own private libraries.

The present price of a share is Twenty-five Dollars, subject to an annual assessment of Two Dollars.

The Library Room, in Franklin Place, is opened every Saturday forenoon, from 10 to 1 o'clock, and every Thursday and Saturday afternoon, from 3 to 5 o'clock in the six months commencing on the 20th of September, and from 3 to 6 o'clock through the remainder of the year.
